2024 ISRAEL TOUR The Life of Jesus

For some time, folks have contacted Jeremy asking if he would take them on an exclusive trip to Israel to see the places they experienced through Appian Media's online videos. The answer is finally, yes! Appian Expedition's Life of Jesus Tour has two specific goals:

1) To travel through Israel with a focus on locations significant to the life of Jesus. We will definitely visit some places outside the scope of Jesus' life because of how near they are, but we will primarily focus on the events and locations pertinent to the Lord's earthly ministry.

2) To help us travel more quickly and cover as much ground as possible, we are aiming for a group size of 25 guests. So space will be limited.

I have had the honor of learning the Bible since childhood. In 2015, my wife and I traveled to Israel on a group tour. The trip happened at time in our lives when we were run down emotionally and spiritually. Taking the time to experience where so much of the Bible had taken place was life-changing. The trip helped us better visualize the daily lives of the men and women of the Bible. We paid more attention to the details of the text, especially when it came to geography, weather and culture.

As soon as I came home, our local church asked me to lead a Bible class using the pictures I had taken. I also connected with my brother, who eventually co-founded Appian Media. The company asked Barry Britnell and I to host digital videos of the Bible lands to help Bible students around the world better understand what they were reading.

Since my first tour to Israel I have made multiple production trips to the lands of the Bible. Each one is a blessing and I learn something new, either from interviewing archaeologists, talking with museum docents, visiting the Mount of Olives, hiking up ancient Sardis in Turkey, wandering Wadi Rum in Jordan, spending the night on top of Mt. Sinai, sailing the Sea of Galilee, or making friends with the people who call these lands home.

Would you like to experience this or yourself? In September of 2024, I am leading my first group tour to Israel and I would love for you to join me! Our focus this trip will be on places significant to the life and ministry of Jesus. You will visit a replica first-century village in Nazareth. You will take a boat ride on the Sea of Galilee. You will enjoy the beauty of the Mount of Olives where Jesus went to pray, and spend time in Jerusalem itself.

This 9-day tour is a high-quality tour and is available on a first-come, first-served basis. We are limiting the size of this tour so we can move a little faster, and go some places that would be harder for a larger group to visit. Please don't let this opportunity pass you by. Feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

JEREMY DEHUT

Jeremy lives outside of Louisville, Kentucky with his wife Anna, and their children. He began traveling when he was 12 years old, saving up his paper-route money and flying to Alaska on his own to visit a childhood friend and watch the northern lights. Jeremy and Anna made their first trip to Israel in 2015 on a group tour led by Barry Britnell. In 2016 Appian Media invited Jeremy to co-host Biblically accurate media to help people in their pursuit of God. Since then, he has made 3 production trips to Israel, as well as Turkey, Egypt, and Jordan. When he's not traveling, Jeremy works as an evangelist, preaching, teaching, and using the Bible to counsel people seeking help in their growth as disciples of Jesus. Jeremy has also traveled to Lithuania, the Philippine Islands, South Africa, and Mozambique. He currently has plans to visit Sierra Leone and India before the summer of 2024.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 16

You will rendezvous with your tour group in New York City and board an overnight flight to Israel.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 17

Our luxury touring coach will be waiting for us at Tel Aviv's Ben Gurion International Airport. After boarding, we will visit Tel Aviv, the largest city in Israel. Tel Aviv is a very modern city and is quickly becoming one of the technological capitals of the world. Our hotel is in the coastal resort city of Netanya, and sits on the shore of the Mediterranean Sea.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 18

Our first destination of the day will be the coastal city of Caesarea Maritima on the coast of the "Great Sea", the home of Cornelius and the city where Paul was imprisoned for two years awaiting trial. From there we will arrive at the top of Mount Carmel where the prophet Elijah competed with the prophets of Baal. This will also offer us our first view of the expansive Jezreel Valley. On the northern side of the valley, our tour of Nazareth will include a visit to a reconstructed first-century village. This village is always a highlight for Bible class teachers as it offers tremendous opportunities to better understand the customs of the Bible. Our day will end with our arrival at the Sea of Galilee and a beautiful view from the top of Mt. Arbel.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 19

Our day will be spent entirely around the Sea itself, beginning with a boat ride across the Sea. You will be able to understand the way that the narratives are written when you can see the locations for yourself. Our time on the sea will be followed by visits to Capernaum, Magdala, the Mount of Beatitudes, Chorazin, Bethsaida, the Cove of the Sower, and an actual boat from the first century.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 20

Today, we will go to the lowest place on earth, the Dead Sea. As we travel along the way, we will visit Beth-shean, then travel to where the Jordan River empties into the Dead Sea. We will visit the traditional baptismal site of Jesus. After lunch in Jericho, we will travel to our overnight destination on the shores of the Dead Sea. At the end of the day, we will arrive at one of the most beautiful cities in the world, Jerusalem.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 21

We will start our day on the Temple Mount, where Solomon built his temple and Peter preached to the crowd on the Day of Pentecost. We will walk through the Old City of Jerusalem on our way to the Church of the Holy Sepulcher, the traditional location of Golgotha. You will never forget your walk through this ancient city. The Western Wall of the Temple Mount is the holiest site in Jewish religion. We will end our day sitting on the southern steps of the Temple Mount, the same steps that Jesus walked up when he visited the temple as a child.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 22

Today we will step back into history at the City of David. Here, we will see the foundations of the ancient city, the Gihon Spring, and see Hezekiah's Tunnel. On the southern end of the hill, excavations are underway around the Pool of Siloam, where Jesus told the blind man to wash to receive his sight. After lunch, it is on to Bethlehem, and a visit to the Church of the Nativity.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 23

Today is part of what makes this tour unique. It's a free day! Do you need a rest day? Take a breather at the hotel and pamper yourself. Would you like to explore more of the Old City of Jerusalem on your own? We will help you get there. Looking for some additional adventure? We will have several one-day expeditions for some small groups to enjoy together and then bring you back to the hotel at the end of the day. We will organize these day trips after we know the total size of our group and will communicate with you via email.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 24

On our final day in Israel, we will start with a visit to the Mount of Olives. You will never forget this traditional view of Jerusalem. Walking through the Garden of Gethsemane and to the Kidron Valley is one of the most meaningful journeys for me. Then we will visit the Israel Museum. From there, you will be able to view the original Dead Sea Scrolls and several artifacts that relate directly to many places we have visited. The large-scale model of Jerusalem in the first century will "pull it all together" for you. Our day ends by heading west out of town, enjoying a last meal together while overlooking the Mediterranean Sea. After dinner, we will head to the airport to prepare for our overnight flight home.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 25

We will arrive back in the United States remembering all of the things that we have learned and ready to share them with others.

Sept. 16-25, 2024 • Led by Jeremy Dehut • Tour Price: $5,395/person (See brochure for all inclusions)
